Dear Patsy
I am sure B. McKenzie is somewhere in Tex.
I know her sister here in Montreal, but she has just taken off for Europe. I'll find out when she returns. I think the whole idea is great & I am due for a trip home around this many thanks -

Dear Lally - How nice to hear from you again - even after all these years of silence. Your idea sounds terrific - I can hardly wait to see the group again. He shall almost all be able to get there with flying colors. It is today - Two years ago I flew up for a big weekend to celebrate the 25th Anniversary of my graduation class at Brandon Hall. It was such fun - I hope this one will be too - Good luck - I hope to hear more from you soon -

E.N.B. Best of everything
Carol

Sincerely,

I was a married woman for years but I don't know her name - I hope she comes then & I can contact with her - C.

Yes - indeed
yes
yes
No - will do.

Dear Patty:

Found the mailing for me when I came back Sat. from a warm holiday - hence the delay in "mailing it once" -

The reunion idea is an excellent one - I am in favour of anything that gives staff and our gang an opportunity to chat.

Much success
Kae.

Dear Patty,

Thanks you for your excellent form letter regarding the proposed M.E.S. reunion on May 16-18th. Would like to attend but my husband & I will be at our cottage that long week-end. Should you decide to hold the reunion on another date in May, will arrange to stay in the city for it.

I think get togethers, such as the suggested tea & buffet supper, are the best kind of entertainment where everyone can get caught up on the last 25 years' news. Lunch or dinner in one of Toronto's many good restaurants is another suggestion. Good luck with your plans.

Dear Paddy —

You are really tackling quite a job aren't you. Soho & I went up to Windsor & took Maxine & Norm to ^{the} airport in Detroit. They flew to Switzerland for 3 weeks. Molly (second child) is in Qr. XIII there.

Re. Entertainment. Well all want to know what all the others have been doing & we'll never be able to talk to every one. Could we all send in 'Thumb Nail' sketches of our lines since '39 to be read out at the tea or supper or something like that?

If I can help at all — please let me know.

All the best to you,

Sess.
